

Sunday, June 21, 2026

Good Morning

How City Bank got entangled in Sea Pearl's artificial rally

City Bank's latest financial portfolio bears signs of institutional influence in an artificial market rally of the stock of Sea Pearl Beach Resort & Spa in 2023. Not only did the act, which was illegal under the securities rules, cost general investors heavy losses following a sharp decline in the share price in the secondary market, but it also caused a deep erosion in the lender's portfolio.

<https://thefinancialexpress.com.bd/stock/bangladesh/how-city-bank-got-entangled-in-sea-pearls-artificial-rally>

Bangladesh Bank eases forex rules for ship leasing by local firms

The central bank has allowed authorized dealer (AD) banks to facilitate outward remittances for lease rentals of ships and vessels by shipping companies incorporated in Bangladesh, aiming to strengthen the maritime sector.

<https://thefinancialexpress.com.bd/economy/bangladesh/bb-eases-forex-rules-for-ship-leasing-by-local-firms>

Junk stock Regent Textile's suspicious rally under probe

The securities regulator has ordered a probe into the recent abnormal price movement and trading volume of Regent Textile Mills Limited, a junk stock on the Dhaka Stock Exchange (DSE).

<https://thefinancialexpress.com.bd/stock/bangladesh/junk-stock-regent-textiles-suspicious-rally-under-probe>

New IDRA chief vows to overhaul insurance sector

Newly appointed Chairman of the insurance regulator Mir Nadia Nivin has pledged to modernise Bangladesh's insurance sector through stronger governance and the introduction of risk-based supervision aimed at bringing the industry in line with international standards.

Sunday, June 21, 2026

<https://thefinancialexpress.com.bd/stock/bangladesh/new-idra-chief-vows-to-overhaul-insurance-sector>

Five Companies Declare Dividends During the Week

Five companies listed on the stock market announced dividends during the week. The companies are Berger Paints, Global Insurance, Sikder Insurance, Prime Islami Life Insurance, and Sunlife Insurance, according to relevant sources.

<https://sharenews24.com/article/120073/index.html>

Dividend and EPS Declarations of Seven Companies Expected This Week

Seven companies listed on the stock market are scheduled to declare dividends and publish their Earnings Per Share (EPS) reports during the current week, according to sources at the DSE. The companies are Popular Life Insurance, Pragati Life Insurance, Islami Insurance, Chartered Life Insurance, National Housing Finance, FAS Finance, and BIFC. Investors are expected to closely monitor the announcements, which will provide insights into the companies' financial performance and dividend distributions.

<https://sharenews24.com/article/120071/index.html>

Nine Companies to Hold AGMs This Week

The Annual General Meetings (AGMs) of nine companies listed on the stock market will be held this week to approve their previously declared dividends. The shareholders will consider and approve the announced dividend proposals during the meetings, according to information available on the LankaBangla Analysis Portal.

<https://sharenews24.com/article/120070/index.html>