MICEMENT

The auditor of the M.I. Cement Factory Limited has given the "Qualified Opinion"& "Emphasis of Matter" paragraphs in the Auditor's Report for the year ended on 30 June 2020. In this regard, we may disseminate the following news through our online trading system: Qualified Opinion: 1)MI Cement Factory Limited has significant control over four entities namely (1) Crown Mariners Limited (2) Crown Cement Concrete and Building Products Limited (3) Crown Power Generation Limited and (4) Crown Transportation and Logistics Limited through common directorship and effective management. As such, the accounts should have been consolidated under IFRS 10. Moreover, there are three other entities namely (1) Ocean Vision Shipping Lines Limited (2) Ocean Victory Shipping Lines limited and (3) Ocean Voyager Shipping Lines Limited, which are reportedly dormant and non- operating companies. No financial statement for these companies were available for the auditor's review. The company did not report them as subsidiaries under IFRS 10 and financial statement of these entities have not been considered for consolidation. 2) The Company has outstanding accounts receivable that are overdue for more than 365 days. The company does not have any policy for accounts receivable. There are also amounts received from customers that could not be accounted for due to lack of required information from customers. As a result, loss for the year is understated to the extent of amount not provided for but the quantum of which cannot be determined. Moreover, the Company did not apply the expected credit loss method as per requirement of IFRS 9 in this regard. Emphasis of Matter: 1)The Company has not made any actuarial valuation of its liability for gratuity that is required under IAS 19. 2)The amount of cash and cash equivalent is high (about 1.95% of the total assets of the Company). 3) During the year, the Company made certain cash transactions that exceed the threshold of Tk. 50,000/- that is a violation of relevant section of Income Tax Ordinance 1984.
